ESLC announces opening for Community Projects Manager

Eastern Shore Land Conservancy (Md.) seeks an experienced professional to launch a new effort aimed at improving public access to the Chesapeake Bay, nature, and open space on Maryland's Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake Bay. ESLC is a regional 501(c)3 conservation organization working to protect land and promote sound land use planning on the Eastern Shore.

ESLC is one of America's top regional land conservancies having protected 256 properties on over 50,000 acres of important natural areas, prime farmland, and critical community open spaces. The Community Projects Manager is responsible for initiation and coordination of a new strategic plan initiative aimed at improving public access to the Chesapeake Bay and increasing parks and paths and open space within our towns and villages on the Eastern Shore. Candidate should have land conservation or related law or real estate experience, good program development, budgeting, and evaluation skills, and a commitment to thriving towns and healthy lifestyles.

For more information about the Community Projects Manager opportunity, please visit our website.

To apply, please e-mail a resume and cover letter ASAP to: Nina White, Director of Administration. Eastern Shore Land Conservancy nwhite@eslc.org.
