DEDO to Offer Job Search Training Series in March

Call for Volunteer Facilitators Announced

DOVER, Del. (Feb. 19, 2009) – The Delaware Economic Development Office will offer a job search workshop series, “Bridge to a New Position” in March. The series is a skill building program to help attendees find new employment. It is presented in partnership with the Workforce Investment Board, the DelMarVa and Delaware Society of Human Resource Management, and the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program.

Workshop participants will develop resumes, improve their interviewing skills and hear tips on conducting job searches. Special one-on-one sessions with the facilitators will be available to participants during the workshops. Participants will also have the opportunity to meet with Vocational Counselors to expand the types of options available for employment.

Advanced registration is required. For workshop dates and more information, call 302-255-9878 in New Castle County or 302-856-5815 in Sussex County.

The series organizers are also accepting volunteers to facilitate the workshops. Human resource professionals and counselors with knowledge and experience in job coaching, resume writing, and interview instruction may contact the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program office by calling 302-856-5815.
